Story 9
Confused fight

What?!
The hero is going to be executed ?!
No we have to rescue him—
Let's go Sira and Raku—
No

Eh ...
Rescue him? What for ?
Let him die
He didn't try to rely on us
As a matter of fact, he has never.
Raku syuri ?

He probably thought that he didn't want to get us involved.
But then what are companions for ?!
It's not that he didn't want us to be involved !
It is that he has never accepted us as his companions truly !

At that time, I was the worst
When I met Ekusa for the first time, we were on a fighting stage.
決っの定ては戦ん
I harmed others without any feeling of guilt
And I met Ekusa who was arguing me in his usual tone
I was being regarded lowly by others
Was pissed at him pretty much
But, at the same time, a thought came across my mind.

That was I wanted him to defeat my arrogant self
I was unable to control myself and people had given up on me
And as expected
After losing completely to him...
He defeated me completely
I decided to join him for his journey

But he made every decision by himself and cared about me even when it wasn't needed
You are not going ?
So he s just pissed
Why should I help out such a guy ?!
Excuse me
Let him die ! That s what he wants !
Ch ld sh
I am not !
Going !
Look who s talking

Heh...
What a nuisance the hero is.
Let him die
If it wasn't for that hero... prince Juno would have never even thought about going against the king...
Wasn't it because ot that cocky prince that got Ekusa arrested in the first place ?
I want to boil him alive in a pot.
of course, half-boiled
This is no time for that!
About to fight

A man doesn't change his words.
Anyway, let's make the decision. Takusyuri, you are coming or not ?
What ?!
I am coming
What about you, Sira?
— Want to come ?
Really ! Really not going! Really !
Really? Really not going? Really?
I am—
NOT going !

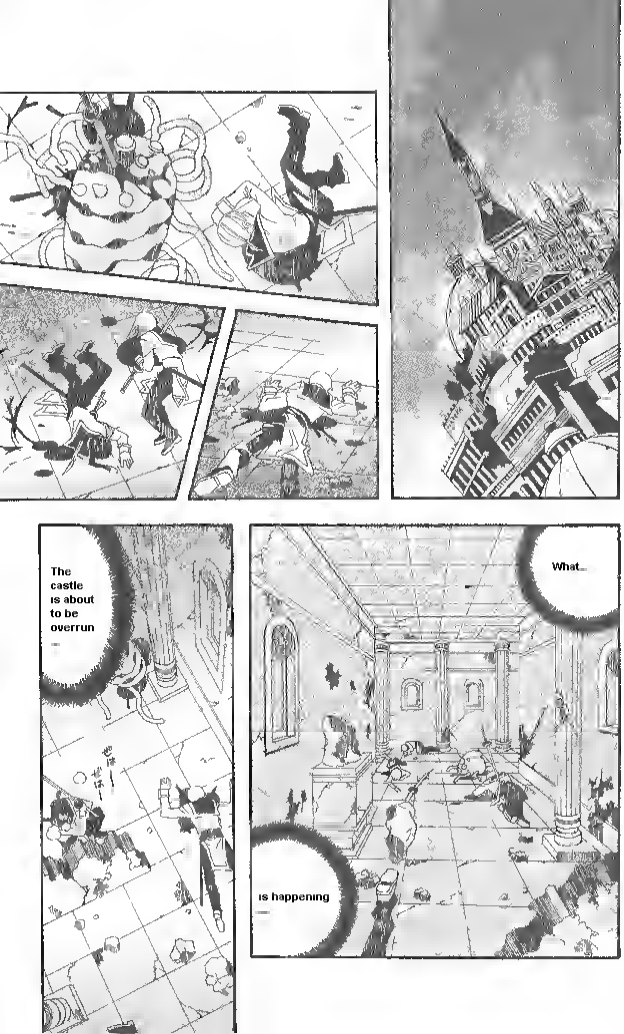
Do you understand?
Ah
Yes!



The castle is about to be overrun
What... is happening

If this keeps going on like this, it will only be a matter of time we are annihilated!
Monsters disguised as humans?
There is no way to distinguish which is a monster!
We are being ambushed one by one
We can't attack first since there is a chance that we might harm humans
Damn it! I reacted too slow!
Friend or foe?

Even if you say so

If I could boost my ability with a gem, it might be possible like before
I wish I could simply cast magic on the whole castle but I am not powerful enough
But this sword is a borrowed one I will have to fine one by one and manually appear and seal them
How weak I am still

Do you happen to know what has happened to my father ?
No sir
You don't either ?
I hope he will be alright
I
I apologize !
Please forgive me !
Do not fear. There is no monster among us right now.
Also, I have released the hero personally.

This could not be avoided
Raise your face
What we need to do is make a plan rather than repent
Sire
Monsters invaded the castle and I could not do anything!
I am utterly ashamed as a royal guard!
But what were you trying to do?
Any reason for releasing the hero ?

I had no plan to let him come back to the castle, either ...
Now, this way !
Make haste !

He is one of my men.

Sir. Juno, it's urgent !

It's ...
What is it ?

Monsters ... have invaded the castle !
What... ?!

They are disguised as humans ...
Guards are tryng to fight back but it doesn't look so good right now Hero !
.....
That is not the way to the exit !
Sire,
Listen, you are in no position to worry about that !
I have to fight.
You will be wanted!
Don't tell me
!?

Your sword was taken away, so even if you go, you won't be very effective.
I will get your sword back when I can...
Sire...
Leave the castle to me and go!
You think about defeating the demon lord!
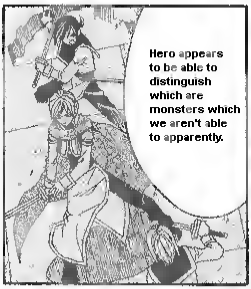
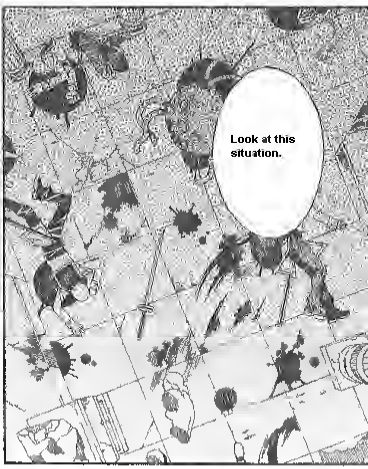
to defeat the demon lord and My decision was to save humans and monsters all together
.....

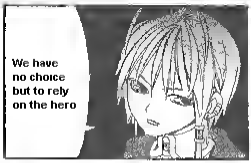
Honestly, whatever was going to happen to the castle, I didn't want the hero to become involved.
ふたりに



Hero appears to be able to distinguish which are monsters which we aren't able to apparently.



Look at this situation.



We have no choice but to rely on the hero

Prince Juno, please consider abandoning the castle ! At least you must survive !
But this castle is huge ... There is no way he alone can protect this castle ...

I would have followed such an advice if it were the old me...
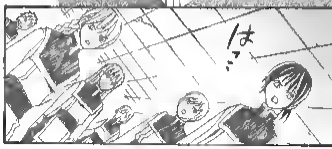
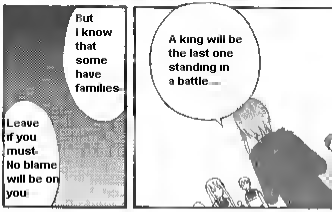
But I've learned something from you.
It is that I am not being forced to be here but
I have chosen to be here
在るのだと…

If anyone
Even one guard is left here fighting —I will not leave





A king will be the last one standing in a battle
But I know that some have families
Leave if you must. No blame will be on you

Honestly, our chance to win is low.
We most likely will die.

Still if you want to remain here you will follow me.

ジュノー王子…!!!
Prince Juno III
Sire - ! Your orders !
We exist to serve the king !
Even if we have to die, we will protect you !
Still young, but a king none-theless.
I see.
We were completely disorganized.....
But now we are solid as a rock now.
Pretty much everyone was going to run.....

But wouldn't it be faster just to kill monsters?
What if they are humans?
This jail is huge We can confine every monster in this castle in here.
Besides the prince is right We must avoid killing each other.
Most of you will support the hero in battle
I have a plan
Please.
A small number of us will try to seize monsters
Do not kill monsters even if they are absolutely identified.

Yes !
If you say so sire ! We will do as you ask !
Depended on you, hero !
No one acts alone. Make teams
Let's make a s gn so that we won't attack each other
Now— whether we die or live is—
